

Unrestricted Praise

Unrestricted Praise offers true worship through their music ministry. The group has a long history of ministering the gospel through their music. The group first started back in 2011. They have been together for over 10 plus years. They are a family group and the members of the group are Ike Moore Stacy Moore Renee Drummond Terra Drummond and Tyrik Walker. The group has been very faithful, and because they were walking by faith and remained dedicated to the Lord, the group was formed.

Unrestricted Praise, although they faced many challenges, they were able to remain dedicated to the call. In life there are many challenges that might break you or make you, and for Unrestricted Praise those challenges have built lasting love, mutual respect, and a spiritual bond, through Christ.

So far During their musical journey they've done a lot of things. Their very first single was done back in 2017 and it was a Christmas song called Christmas Time. At that time they were signed under Hill Boy Music Inc. They were under that label for one year. At that time Unrestricted Praise had graduated from just being a regular group that went to go sing at different churches each Sunday to a Gospel Recording artist. Other music projects that the group has done are Greater Is He in 2018, They did their first EP in 2019 entitled Nothing But Love. That project consisted of over 4 songs. The songs were Nothing But Love, Thank you, In The Masters Arms and Greater Is He. Also In 2019 the song In The Masters Arms had an opportunity to be on the #IAM Gospel Vol 2 Indie Artist Movement presented by the Prayze Factor Season 12 edition.

Their most recent single entitled He's Been So Good To Me has done really well. In 2022 the song had made the Billboard Gospel Indicator chart. Unrestricted Praise has been in several gospel magazines across the country to name a few Gospel USA magazines, Gospel Updates and Prayze Factor magazines. In 2019 they had the opportunity to be on the Bobby Jones show where they shared the stage with National Gospel Recording Artist Canton Jones. Unrestricted Praise has traveled all across the country and has shared the Stage with National Recording Artists like Brent Jones, Chester DT Baldwin and Norman Hutchins to name a few.

This group has won numerous awards and have sung on a couple different awards show platforms. Awards that they have won are River and Word award Gospel Group of the year, S&M Gospel Indie Award Gospel Group of the year, 2 times Texas Gospel Music Excellence Awards winner Best CD project of the year and Gospel Group of the year, Arizona Gospel Music Awards Praise and worship group of the year, Gospel Updates Artist of the year and 4 times Prayze Factor Awards winning group 2 times in Traditional Group of the year, Urban Group of the year and Alternative Group of the year.

As servants of the Lord, Unrestricted Praise is always willing to serve, and because of their obedience and lining up their will with God's Will, many doors have opened for Unrestricted Praise. When God opens doors for you they are always more than you could ever hope or dream of, and God's open doors have taken this anointed group to higher heights and deeper depths through worship.
